Update from Mr Davda

This week has seen the welcome return of the popular "Seedpips' gardening club. Thanks to Jo, Jackie and Colin for volunteering to teach the children some important lessons about all things gardening, whilst simultaneously creating a vibrant outside environment for everyone at Corvedale to enjoy.

Just a couple of things this week, firstly, Tuesday's afterschool Netball club will not be running next week (04.02.25), as many of the usual attendees will be out on a school trip. Apologies for any inconvenience caused.

Secondly, to celebrate our wonderful parents and carers Heather in the kitchen is excited to be inviting them into school for a delicious home cooked celebratory Lunch. This will be taking place over 3 consecutive days at the end of March—see dates for your diary below and letters will be going out shortly with more information regarding how to book your place etc.

I hope you all have a wonderful weekend!

PE and Sport

Just a little reminder for all the girls going out to Oldbury Wells School, Bridgnorth next Tues-day 4th Feb for the Football Tournament—you will be able to have a school lunch as we are not leaving until 1.30pm however you will need:

Water bottle and snack

PE Kit

Football socks and shin pads (school can provide shin pads),
Football boots if possible but no metal studs,
Warm clothing (joggers/jumper)
Waterproof coat

It will be a late return, so parents/guardians will need to collect pupils at 5.15pm from school please.

Unfortunately the Cricket trip planned for next Thursday 6th February has been cancelled.

Finally, we are pleased to announce that there will be a new Multi Skills Afterschool Club for children in Y R, 1 and2 starting Tuesday 25th Feb for 6 weeks from 3.15-4.15pm. The club is free of charge, however, we would be grateful if you could please email to confirm your place prior to half term.

Seedpips, the much loved gardening club returned for Mrs Rook's class this week.
